They're Playing Great Ball.

For a Pull Account of the Big Ball Games and Baces and a Salient Sporting Cartoon Invest ONE CENT in the 'Evening World's" Sporting Extra.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, JULY 25, 1888.

TALKING OF EMIGRATION.

CONGRESSMAN FORD'S CASTLE GARDEN COMMITTEE BEGINS ITS WORK.

Steambout Agent, on the Witness-Stand. Gives Interesting Points on the People Who Cross the Ocean to Find New Homes How Tickets Are Sold and What Emigrants' Certificates Show.

The special committee appointed by Speaker Carlisle, of the House of Representatives, on the resolution of Congressman Melbourne H. Ford, of Michigan, to inquire into the methods in operation at Castle Garden, held their first session in room 18 at the Westminster Hetel to-day.

The committee is composed of Mr. Ford, chairman, a bright, young, smooth-faced man, who has achieved a reputation as a cross-examiner; Gen. Francis B. Spinola, of this city : W. C. Oates, of Alabama : W. W. Morrow, of California ; Richard Guenther, of Wisconsin.

Messrs. Spinola and Oates were detained at Washington and did not participate in to-day's proceedings. They will arrive here this day's proceedings. They will arrive here this evening.

Among the witnesses present under subpona to-day were E. L. Boas, of the Hamburg steamer line: Louis Contenci, president of the Italian Emigration Society, and Jacob Judelsohn, originator of the Jewish Emigrant Protection Association of New York and Philadelphia.

Mr. Boas was the first witness and Chairman Ford examined him, eliciting the information that the boats of his company plied between New York and Hamburg. There are twenty-nine steam vessels, with two arrivals each week.

The vessels brought over 53,057 steerage passengers in 1883, 56,184 in 1884, 38,943 in 1885, 29,782 in 1886 and 27,352 in 1887.

One-third of the emigrants coming over his line engage passage through emigration commissions in Germany, and two-thirds of them go to places outside of this city, by the original contract on which their tickets are purchased.

They buy tickets to their final destination, purchased.

They buy tickets to their final destination. They buy tickets to their final destination, and are obliged to leave Castle Garden within twenty-four hours after their arrival in order to receive the benefit of the special rates extended to them by the Hamburg line.

Agents of the company receive 11 per cent of the selling price of the tickets, and every person applying for a passage ticket is required to show a Government passport stating that he has never been convicted of any offense.

offense.

To Mr. Guenther, who is himself a German, Mr. Boas said that though the passport afforded no information regarding the mental state or physical ability of the emigrant, he agents of the company made careful in-duiry as to these matters, and persons who might become paupers in America were rejected.
Mr. Boas admitted that twenty-five or

Mr. Boas admitted that twenty-five or fifty emigrants arriving from Hamburg had been returned by the Emigration Commissioners as persons liable to become paupers, but declared that no oriminals or lunatics had ever been found among the steerage passengers on his line.

To Mr. Morrow Mr. Boas explained that a person in Germany desiring to emigrate must apply to the magistrate in his town for a permission. He must show that he is not must apply to the magistrate in his town for a permission. He must show that he is not liable to military service, and the magistrate then issues the passport.

Able-bodied men from eighteen to twenty-one years of age, are liable to military service, but if one is physically imperfect, or has been dismissed from service, he may obtain a permit to emigrate.

"Then the certificate is in security against the ameration of physically imperfect men?"

asked Mr. Morrow.
"None. The only safeguard is the anxiety of my company not to bring over emigrants who will be sent back." who will be sent back."

To Mr. Guenther, Mr Boas declared that he had never heard, except in American newspapers, of any society in Germany which had for its object, charitably or otherwise, the promotion of emigration to America.

His company had been called to account one or twice for violation of the law which once or twice for violation of the law which limits the number of passengers to be carried by the steamers, but the excess was never more than tenior twelve, and the Secretary of the Treasury, being satisfied that only a technical violation had occurred, dismissed the matter without the imposition of the $5.008 fine.

$5,000 fine.

The company has Bohemian, Polish and they have

The company has Bohemman, Polish and Hungarian agents in this city, and they have blocks of fifty tickets in blank. They sell these tickets on their own judgment.

The Hungarian emigrants are in the main part common laborers. The Bohemians are about squally divided, being laborers and agriculturists, and the Poles are common laborers as a class. Buffelo and Chicago are centres for the Poles.

THE INDICTED POLICY DEALERS.

They Are Not Safe, but Will Face a Jury Probably Next Week.

If the policy dealers who were brought to the bar of justice by THE EVENING WORLD fancy themselves secure with pigeon-holed indictments they are mistaken.

They were promised their day in court this week, but the Howard perjury case has occupied the attention of the Recorder up to the present time, and their case could not be put on the calendar for trial.

They will probably be obliged to face a ury next week.

The Kaiser Chowder Club. their rooms at 401 West Fiftieth atreet, gave their annual coach-drive and chowder yesterday, making their destination Point View Island. . Arranged in who lawn tennis shirts and caps, they made a picturescene party on the four coaceas employed for the occasion, and at the island they passed a day of great pleasure.

On their return in the evening they kept up the bilarity of the occasion at their rooms until a late

THE EVENING WORLD Sporting Extra to-night will publish a picture of the Giants' mascot—Master Fred Boldt. THE EVENING WORLD'S sporting cartoons are the talk of the town.

"That Miss Jones is a nice-looking gir', isn't "That Miss Jones is a nice-looking gir!, isn't sne?"

"Yes, and she'd be the belle of the town if it wasn't lor one thing."

"What's that?"

"She has outsirh so had it is unpleasant to be hear her. She has tried adosen things and nothing helps her. I sm sorry, for I like her, but that doesn't make it any less disagreeable for one to be around her."

Now if she had used Dr. Saon's Cararra Reservy there would have been nothing of the kind said, for it will core catarra every time. "."

SAYS MR. PURROY TO POWER.

another Chapter Over the Seconden of the Distinguished Commissioner.

Fire Commissioner Henry D. Purroy is evidently on a political gunning expedition, and is after the scalps of Police Justice Maurice J. Power and other County Democracy leaders. He appears to have plenty of am-munition and to be armed with double-barrelled guns.

Commissioner Purroy was nettled at Justice Power's interview in reply to the Commissioner's literary broadside, which was discharged a few days ago.

The Judge, in his interview, made light of the Commissioner's secession from the County and rather alluded to him as a "sorehead." This riled the Commissioner and ne let go another broadside aimed at Judge Power and the County Democracy machine. In his second manifesto Commissioner Pur-roy introduces the following passages :

roy introduces the following passages:

It is well known that no meetings of the Executive Committee have been held until Judge Power's permission had arrived.

Fortunately the "youth of our city" are pretive shrewd fellows, and it did not take them long to find out what every one now knows, viz., that the boasted 'plan' of primaries of the County Democracy has become one of the most successful methods for boissering up weak district leaders and for perpetrating wrons, because at these primaries (and the more of them the worse it is) a paper blank, distributed only in secret to confidential agents, is made the effective means of breaking down any opposition and defeating the voter's will.

Judge Power never feels himself so safe as when le is conceased techind some member of the very respectable firm of Cooper, Hewitt & Co. * * 1 am very giad to hear from Judge Power that the County Democracy has got up from its kn-es, but I am atraid that, true to its past record, it will not be long before it is down on its marrow-bones again.

Commissioner Purroy has resigned his membership in the New Amsterdam Club, the social organization of the County Democracy.

The friends and followers of the Commissioner have organized the Henry D. Purroy Democratic Central Campaign Association, with headquarters at the Morton House. Among the active members already enrolled are : Fifth District—Charles P. Ketterer, James Deig-

Fifth District—Charles P. Ketterer, James Deignin and William Harney.
Seventh District—Lawrence G. O'Brien, Dr. J. Edward McMichael.

Ninth District—George Morria.
Eleven'n District—William Glenson and John Connors.

Nineteenth District—William Glenson and John Connors.

Nineteenth District—William Glenson and John Connors.

Nineteenth District—Homas O'Callaghan.

Twentieth Catrict—John R. Sheida.

Twenty-shero District—Edward McManus.

*Twenty-thiru District—Patrick Mullen, John Halloran, P. J. McKeon and John Lally.

Twenty-third Wari—Arthur Arcanda, Thomas P. Hughes, Charles Jones, Lawrence McGrath and Dahiel Kelly.

Twenty-fourth Ward—Henry D. Purroy, Hugh Ferrigan, John B. Shea, Enoch Vrecland, Jr., Dr. Robert A. Joyce.

Edward Kearney is to be one of the promi-

Edward Kearney is to be one of the promi-

Edward Kearney is to be one of the prominent members.

Ex-Assemblyman Daniel Patterson is the County Democracy leader in the Eighth Assembly District. He succeeded the late ex-Alderman Bernard Kenney.

There was a fight over the leadership of the Eighth District machine when Kenney died.

Mr. Edward Kearney fought in favor of Patterson, and Patterson was handed the leadership. He has always been a personal and political friend of Kearney's, and it is rumored that Patterson is in a quandary.

He would like to remain in the County machine, but he does not wish to incur the enmity of Kearney.

Police Justice Power was out of the city this morning, and consequently could not be this morning, and consequently could not be interviewed on the subject of Commissioner Purroy's latest fulmination.

BROOKLYN NEWS.

A Boy Kept Three Days, Naked and Hungry in a Dry-Goods Box.

John Quinn, a laborer, thirty-nine year old, was arrested at his home on Prospect, near Eleventh avenue, on a charge of grael and inhuman treatment of Eugene Sweck, a try to balk each other's throws to see lad about eight years old, whom Quinn adopted five months ago.

When the officers visited Quinn's residence they found the boy lying in a dry goods box in the cellar, entirely nude.

He said that Quinn had kept him in that condition and without anything to eat or drink for three days and nights.

Brooklyn Brevities.

Fire in the three one-story frame buildings, 66 to 70 Berry street, occupied by Bach, Taylor & Co. as an iron foundry, caused a damage of $7,500. Mary Hoffman, a young woman, of 839 Gates avenue, left her home last night in scanty attire and paraded the streets, shouting and ainging. She will be examined as to her sanity.

ARRESTED AT HIS WEDDING.

Unexpected Event Which Spoiled Marriage Festival at Paterson.

INPECTAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, PATERSON, July 25 .- Lewis B. Stackhouse Newark young man, was arrested here last night, just as he was about to marry Hattie Grafton, of 115 Pearl street.

His bride is a pretty girl of eighteen, was left weeping and inconsolable at her father's Stackhouse retained Richard Randall as his lawyer. The attorney pronounced the ar-lawyer. The attorney pronounced the arrest an outrage and said that it would be advisable to sue Justice Demont, Officer Quinlan and the complainant, Mrs. Charlotte Bush.

This woman says Stackhouse obtained $30 from her under false pretence. Stackhouse says he simply owes her a board bill of $20.
He is twenty-two years of age and is a piano and organ agent.

and organ agent. Preparing for Mr. Blaine's Reception. Plans for the reception of Mr. Biaine, when he reaches this city on his return from Europe, contime to grow in magnitude, and the evation promises to be one of the greatest ever tendered to an American citizen in his own country. Delegations of prominent Republicans even from as far away as rexas and California will be on hand, and several Texas and California will be on hand, and several large parties will go down the harbor on atsamers to meet the returning traveller. The eletais of the reception will be arranged as far as post-lie at a meeting of the county and reception committees this evening at the county headquarters, 10 West Twenty-fifth street.

Launching of the Steamer Puritan.

PHILADRIPHIA, July 25.—The new Fall River pe steamer Puritan will be launched at Chester to-day. She is to have a speed of twenty-one miles per hour. There are 220 staterooms and the boat will have cost, when completed, $1,500,000.

Elizabethport's Daring Sneak Thieves.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] ELIZABETH, N. J., July 25. —Eneak thieves enered Bernard McLain's large boarding-house on Fourth street, in broad daylight, ransacked the rooms of all the boarders and carried off a large quantity of lewelry. They also entered another place on Second street and stole $20 from a bureau

A CLEVER SWINDLER CAUGHT. He is Locked Up at St. Louis, but the Com-

Plainant fine Disappeared. It was announced this morning that the St. Louis police had arrested J. D. Borzons on the charge of swindling his employers, Lach-

S. Lachman & Co., of San Francisco, is one of the largest dealers in native wine in California, and is the firm alluded to in the California, and is the firm alluded to in the despatch.

It has no branch in this city, but the general alarm on which Borzone was arrested was sent out by the New York police at the request of Norman Becker, the travelling representative of Lachman & Co. in the East.

He went to Police Headquarters some four weeks are and said that his firm was being swindled by a man in the East who represented himself as the agent of the house.

His game was to send in bogus orders and then wait for the goods to arrive, when he would pay the frieght on them, realize on the property and then disappear.

He worked this game in several cities so successfully that it is said he made several thousand dollars out of it. He is thought to have worked under several allasses.

At Becker's request In pector Byrnes communicated with the chiefs of police in all the large Western cities and many in the East, warning them to keep a good lookout for Borzone, which is the name he has lately gone by.

gone by.

He also urged Becker to have the man indicted, so that a warrant might be obtained for his extradition without delay when he should be arrested.

This, however, Becker neglected to do, and

This, however, Becker neglected to do, and now that the man is arrested he is nowhere to be found.

Sergt. Bird, who is in charge of the detective office to-day, is in a state of mind over tive office to-day, is in a state of mind over the matter.

The St. Louis police are holding Borzone for instruction, and he doesn't know what to say to them. All the morning he has been scouring the town with his spare detectives trying to find Becker, but nobody has seen him for a week past.

It is believed by his acquaintances that he

It is believed by his acquaintances that he has taken a business trip to the East.

In case he cannot be found, Sergt. Bird says he can do nothing but telegragh to the St. Louis authorities to let the prisoner go, which he thinks would be a great pity, considering what a precious rascal the fellow is.

ON THE DIAMOND FIELD. Standing of the Clubs This Morning.

LEAGUE.			AMOUNTATION.
Won. Detroit 40 Integro 44 New York 43 Souton 30 Philadelphia 33 Pittaburg 26 Indianapota 20 Washington 25	Zost. 28 27 27 27 35 40 43 45	.614 .493 .479 .894	St. Louis Brooklyn Cincinnati Athietic Baitimore Cieveland Louisville Kansas Otty	68 45 42 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25	Zost. 24 27 27 27 21 89 45 47	Par 66 64 65 65 85 85 85 85
			Line and the second

Games Scheduled for To-Day.

Games Scheduled for T. LEAGUE.
Boston at New York.
Wasnington at Philadelphia.
Pittsburg at Detroit.
Chicago at Indianapolis.
CENTRAL LEAGUE.
Jersey Citys at Allentown.
Newarks at Easton.
Empassmon at secrentos.
Eimiras at Wilkesbarre.

Hits and Errors. Who said "The Coming Champions?"
Burdock's work at second for Brooklyn is excel

Welch's wrist measures but a trifle less than Ward's errors were due to poor judgment of Sowders and Keefe will probably be the twirlers this afternoon.

New York completed her half of the League series gesterday.

That mascot and every one else did considerable "rooting" yesterday.

De Wolf Hopper, at Wallack's—What, again ? and 6 to 3 ? Glor-r-rious ? It is fun to see the ways in which Kelly and Ewing Oakdale, L. I.

luck.

Buck Ewing is receiving extra pay for catching all the games.—Exchange. If this is true it is good news,

If New Yorkers dislike Daniels's umpiring of the Tommy Poorman made a wonderful catch at Washington Park yesterday. It saved the game for the Quakers.

"Come. Burdie, come, and go with me," sang an officer on the Brooklyn ball ground last Satur-day. - Boston Globe. Madden pitched good ball, but he allowed the base-runners too much lead off the bases. The other Mike could not head them off.

Supt. A. H. Bell refuses to make Mr. William J. Harris, of the Press, a present of his new white hat. "Tutti-Frutti" gave William one. Ed Crane in practice pitching wears three heavy woollen "sweaters" and a jersey, but as yet he has not reduced himself to a "lean and hungry

Girl in Grand Stand—" That's him! That little fellow there, throwing the ball. On I he's smiling! Ain' he sweet? The little dear!" Could she have meant Mr. Michael Welch? meant Mr. Michael Weich?

"Ubbo" Hornung is credited with on error of judgment in the thirteenth by the Boston reporters. They think he could have taken Ewing's two-bagger. Joe could not possibly have gotten the ball, but there is reason to think he often plays for a record.

Weldman has at last shown up. He was seen at the Polo Grounds vesterday, and says that his fail-ure to report in Jersey City was due to the serious illness of his wife. Weldman should have made this known to the club management long ago, and it is believed that his omis-ton to do so will sever his connection with President Day.

William Ryan, an old man who lives at 309 Deancey street, while walking through Pell street iast night, was attacked by Jim Sullivan and George Mulien, Whyos, who robbed and beat him, The footpads were field at the Tombs to-day.

Every lover of baseball and racing should read THE EVENING WORLD Sporting Extra. It tells how the Giants are climbing the ladder of the League and what horses are crowned with vicory.

New York Markets.

New York Markets.

WHEAT.—December wheat opened two points up at $150. Market was about steady, the quotation deciming to $150. and advancing to $150. and vice versa.

COTTON.—Futures opened steady at 1 point decime on near months and unchanged late months. July was quoted at 10.57; Aug., 10.62; Sept., 8.66; Oct., 9.46; Nov., 9.57; Dec., 9.57; Jan., 8.48; Peb., 9.49; Marca, 8.66; April. 9.66; May. 8.76. Liverpool cables very duli.

COVEER.—Coffee for July and January declined to points at the opening; the other months were COFFEE.—Coffee for July and January declined to points at the opening; the other months were unchanged from last night's quotations. July, 11.05; Aug., 10.40; Sopt., 2.90; Oct., 2.85; Nev., 11.05; Aug., 10.40; Sopt., 2.90; Oct., 2.85; Nev., May, 2.75; June, 2.95. Market steady, Hamburg cables quiet. Havre steady. FETROLEUM.—Pipe-Line certificates opened at last night's closing quotation, 85%c. Subsequently the quotation swanced to Sayc., but before mond declined to Sayc. Market doll.

Fragrant Vanity Fair Cigarottes. You will find them a pleasant companion; nothing nore. And you will find the opinion strongly confirmed man & Co., of this city, out of a large sum of Mr. Levi P. Morton Imports Contract Laborers.

HOW IS THIS?

> And Pays Them Much Less Than the Current Wages Here.

A Serious Matter for the Republican Candidate for Vice-President.

MR. MORTON YERY RETICENT ABOUT IT

More than a week ago THE EVENING WORLD secame aware that Mr. Levi P. Morton, Republican candidate for Vice-President, had brought to this country foreign laborers under contract. Since then reporters have been patiently at work gathering the facts which verify the story. The importance of the allegations required the utmost carefulness as to accuracy and detail, and for this eason the story was held back until to-day.

It is astounding but true that the gentleman put forward for the second office in the United States by the Republican party, which claims asked me my name. I told him, and then, to be the friend and protector of the American laborer, has gone abroad for his own help and imported contract laborers at about half the wages paid the same class of workmen here.

Whether in so doing Mr. Morton has violated the letter of the Contract Labor law is a delicate question, on which there may well be a conflict of opinion, and which probably could not be decided out of court. It all depends upon whether gardeners and farm laborers may be considered "domestic servanta."

Most of Mr. Morton's servants are foreign, but it is with the cases of two under-gardeners, EVENING WORLD deals. These Mr. Morton engaged in London last winter and sent over here to take charge of his greenhouses at Rhinebeck, after first compelling them to sign a contract that they would work for him for two years at the rate of wages named in the contract. This was $34 a month for Boyd and $30 a month for Forbes without board. The former was afterwards induced to remain at Mr. Morton's place by an offer of a higher salary, although he was very much dissatisfied with the manner in which he had been treated. Forbes went away and is now foreman of the green-Ewing's base-running yesterday surprised Kelly houses of William K. Vanderbilt's place at as much as it delighted the crowd.

Oakdale, L. I.

Forbes is a bright, intelligent-looking ung man of twenty-six, and to a representative of THE EVENING WORLD he told a very interesting story of his dealings with Mr. Morton.

FORBES'S STORY. " Both Boyd and myself," he said, " had good positions at Veitch & Co.'s nurseries in London last winter, when Mr. Morton sent word from Italy to Mr. Veitch asking him to select two first-class flower gardeners for him o send out to his place in the States.

"He said he had a magnificent place and and the finest greenhouses in the country, and wanted only the best men.

"Mr. Veitch spoke to us about it and we thought we would like to go, so he sent on o Mr. Morton our recommendations and a statement of the wages we expected, which were £10 and £9 respectively a month, for Boyd had had more experience than I. Mr. Morton soon wrote back that these were too high and proposed to give us $30 and $34 each, and wanted us to call on him as soon as he came to London.

"We hesitated a good deal at first," but finally, at the advice of friends, we decided to consider the matter, and when Mr. Morton came to London in February last we both went to see him. We were obliged to go three or four times, but at last we saw him and he gave us such a glowing account of his magnificent estate in America that we hesttated no longer.

" When he saw our willingness he told us to call the next day and sign the contract. We were there on time, and when he met us he pulled out a contract, written on one sheet of paper, for us both to sign, and read it to us. THE CONTRACT THEY SIGNED.

"I don't remember what the exact wording of the contract was, but part of it read like this:

"WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, HEREBY AGREE TO GIVE OUR SERVICES AS UNDER-GARDENERS TO LEVI P. MOR-TON FOR THE PERIOD OF TWO YEARS. BEGINNING MARCH 1, 1888,

"The wages, $34 and $30, were men-tioned, and Mr. Morton agreed to pay our expenses and passage money out. MR. MORTON PAID THEIR PASSAGE OVER.

That is the last that either of us saw of the contract, for Mr. Morton stuck it in his pocket and said everything would be all right. We did not see him again till May when he returned from Europe. He provided ne with passage tickets, and we came over in the Egypt, which arrived here about the end of February.

" A good deal has been said about the dissatisfaction which we feel regarding the arrangements which were made for us over

AN ARGUMENT IN TWO SCENES.

Why Should the People Be Content with Doorstep and Alley whe They Have a Park of Their Own?

here and the general condition of the place, which was totally different from what we had | and I have never seen it since. been led to expect, and there is not a bit of t exaggerated. If I had known what it was and I) agreed to come to America and work I never would have come here, and both for Mr. Morton. He was to pay our passage Boyd and myself decided to leave as soon as here and give me $34 a month as second gar-Mr. Morton came over.

dener. There was no time to my recollection HALF THE WAGES PAID TO SKILLED GARDENERS. specified in the agreement, but Mr. Morton We found, too, that we were getting only about half the wages paid to skilled gardeners in this country, and this alone made us indignant at our treatment.

"I remember distinctly when I first saw Mr. Morton after his arrival. He had been at the house two days before he made his appearance on the grounds. He was walking around the greenhouses, when he saw me and without any further conversation, I said to

" 'I suppose Mr. McLannan, the head gardener, has told you that I intend to leave at the end of May, Mr. Morton?'

He seemed very much surprised and replied: 'So you are going to leave, are you? Well, I should like to see you do it.' "I told him that I was going, nevertheless, and said that the wages were very unentisfactory. " WELL, YOU HAVE A CONTRACT WITH ME. " 'Well, you have a contract with me,' he said, 'and I should like to see you break it. I will have you arrested.'

"'Itis you who have broken your con tract, Mr. Morton,' I said, 'because things are not as you represented them. You said the place was in fine condition, and we were to get as high wages as any one in the business in this country, and here we are doing laborers' work and getting less than laborers' "'I can't help that,' he said, 'you have ot to stick to your contract.' " Well, if it comes to that,' I replied, 'how about your engaging us over on the other side to come here under contract, isn't that against the laws here?' "With that he turned on his heel and walked away and I heard him say to the man who was with him: 'That fellows knows too much. "He afterwards said he would not let me go unless I refunded to him the passage money, which he had paid for me, and that never get another place in this country. PAID BACK THE PASSAGE MONEY. " So I scraped up the money, $40, and paid him, but it was some time after I had left "Meanwhile I had tried to get neveral places and had failed. I know that in one case he prevented me from getting a place I was after."

MORE CHEAP LABOR

According to Gardener Forbes, during the months of April and May two grooms for the stable, two footmen and six female servants were sent over from England by Mr. Morton, under contracts varying from one to two years. The stablemen and footmen had not left when he went away, but they were on the point of doing so, for in every case they found that the wages they were getting were far below the average paid in this country for the same class of work.

The female servants did not remain a week in the house after their arrival, but most of them bolted right away the next day, either to New York, where it is supposed they obtained other employment, or went back to England.

PORDES'S HISTORY.

Forbes, who is a Scotchmen, began to serve his apprenticeship as a gardener when he was fourteen years old at the Springfield House, a fine old estate near Edinburgh, Scotland. He was afterwards employed as gentleman gardener or foreman at the greenhouses at Ross Hall, Paisley; Broome House, Futham, London; The Priory, Isle of Wight, and at Sunbury Court, in Middlesex. Boyd was foreman of the gardeners at the country seat of the Earl of Malmesbury, the Earl of Zet. lands and other large estates, and was foreman at Veitche's nurseries, in London, the finest in England, when he was engaged by Mr. Morton.

BOYD'S ACCOUNT OF IT. Boyd was interviewed at his quarters or Morton's estate at Rhinebeck. He is a young Scotchman and says he has letters of recommodation from some of the "biggest pumkins" in England and Scotland. He is Mr Morton's head gardener and was somewhat reticent. He said that he had signed "a private agreement" with Mr. Morton, but not 's contract."

"Of course Mr. Morton did not enter into any contract with Forbes and me," he went on, innocently, "to bring us here to work pacause it was only a private agreement be

"We saw him several times and finally at hotel in London we all signed the agreement.

us to leave. "Mr. Morton gave me a check for £21, I think was the amount, to pay the expenses of both of us to Ellerslie. We started at once was to give us a month's notice if he wanted

We were alone. Mr. Morton took the pape

"The agreement was this way. We (Forbes dener and Forbes $80 a month as third gar-for America, and when we reached Etterslie our wages were paid by Mr. McClellan. then chief gardener. "When I was advanced to my presen position Mr. Morton increased my wages to $50 a month. We have to board ourselves out of our wages, of course, and have had to ever since we have been here. DISAPPOINTED IN ELLESSLIE. "We had been used to such fine gardens n Europe that we were disappointed in Ellerslie, but I would not say anything against Mr. Morton for the world, you know.

good wages." MR. MORTON WON'T COMMIT HIMSELF. To get Mr. Morton's side of the story, an EVENING WORLD reporter was driven from the Rhinebeck station to Ellerslie on Monlay evening. It was 10, o'clock, but Mr. Mor ton was up talking to a friend, although his usual hour for retiring is 9,30. When the reporter made known the object of his visit

Mr. Morton seid decisively; "I decline to make any statement what ver about the matter." He would not admit or deny that he had made written contracts with the gardeners.

garded the matter as very serious. WAS HE THROWN OVERBOARD? Body Weighted with Stones Picked Up at Coney Island. People living in the neighborhood of the west end at Coney Island are all worked up to-day over a new mystery which up to the present time neither they nor the police seem able to solve.

It is a drowning case, the body of a man which had been so long in the water as to be unrecognizable, having been found yesterday floating in the bend at Gravesend Beach, under circumstances that point very strong either to foul play or suicide.

The suspicious circumstance is the fact that when the body was found a white canvas bag containing for weights three large vas bag containing for weights three large cobble stones weighing about seventy-five pounds, was attached to the body by means of a stout cord, and which had evidently served for a long time to keep the body bebeneath the water out of a ght.

It is thought that the man was about forty years of age, but the body had been in the water so long that it was impossible to judge accuracely. The clothing was fine and well made, and consisted of a blue serge suit, white shirt and underclothing, white socks and low shoes. and low shoes.

A careful examination was made, with a view to accertaining whether there were any marks of violence upon the body, but the advanced stage of decomposition prevented them from being distinguished, and the police gave up searching for clues in that direction.

direction.
The man was nearly six feet tall and well

The man was nearly six feet tall and well proportioned.

The police think they have perhaps a clue to the identity of the dead man in the name, "John Baker, New York," which appears painted in black letters upon the bottom of the canva: bag, and just now they are making a search for the owner of the bag.

There are eight John Bakers in the New York City Directory—two engineers, a conductor, a driver, a clerk, a hash dispenser, a gentleman and a lawyer. So far as could be ascertained to-day none of the above Bakers were missing, nor did any of them claim ownership in the mysterious bag.

The general suspicion in the neighborhood of Gravesend is that the unfortunate man was murdered at one of the low re-oris along the shore in that vicinity, and in order to conceal shore in that vicinity, and in order to conceal the crime his body was loaded with stones and taken out into the harbor and sunk. Besides the cobblestones there were found in the canvas bars two old felt hats and a red bandanna handkerchief.

Legal News Condensed.

Israel Kaplan, who rolled off the roof of 145 Delancey atrect while saleep, died in Gouverneur Hospital this morning.

Patrick Mahony, of West Ninety-eighth street, while chasing a pickpocket in Bayard street to Luy, was ron over by a coal cart.

Samuel Neukopsky, aged twelve years, of 16 Ludiow street, was run over by an ice wagon this morning and will probably lose doe foot.

Patrick Mahoney of Ninety-eighth street and Pairick Mahoney, of Ninety-eighth street and Ninth avenue, cassing a third wave ensioned his watco in Bayard street this morning, ran iato a coal carr. His left check was penetrated and laid open by the shaft. The third cacaped.

Death's Unbernided Calls. The Coroner was notified to-day of the following cases of sudden deaths: John Schneider, fifty-five years old, 720 East Ninth street; John Gearring fity-three years, 23 Hlocoker street; Muria Ger-weima, six months, 431 E.st Eighty-first etreet; Eliasbeth McKeos, four months, 122 Gansevoort atreet; frying Edwards, three months, 185 Greene atreet.

PRICE ONE CENT.

Charged With Making a Seditions Speech.

He Is a Roscommon Member of Excitement Among the Parnellite

Copyright, 1888, by The Press Publishing Company (Non-Pork World), (SPECIAL CASES DESPAYOR TO THE WOOLD,)

He was taken to the Chester jail immediately, and will be sent to Dublin to-night. The arrest was a Government surprise, and has created much excitement among the Par-

O'Kelly was once a newspaper man in New York City.

Discovery of a Plot to Place Bulgaria Under Ramina ftule. (BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.) VIENNA, July 25 .- A plot has been disc

Two Russians against whom suspicion was directed have been arrested in Rustchuk by the Roumanian police.
On their persons and in their domicile He is a splendid employer and pays his belp

> The men will be brought before the police authorities for further examination before an open hearing is given. There is much excitement in Rustchuk over the disclosures. The Roumanians are indigmant that Russian emissaries make their country the hot bed of conspiracies against the Prince.

Lologuer Handsop Won by King Mos

His manner, however, indicated that he rewas run to-day and resulted as follows: King Monmonth first, Woodland second and Mosspaul third.

to 1 against Mosspaul,

Mr. Belmont's Bella Donna and Viola Aprive on the Spain To-Day.

On the steamship Spain, which arrived here to-day, were two brood mares consigned from Leopold Rothschild, of London, to August Belmont, of this ci'y.

Mr. Belmont's stock farm in Kentucky.
Mr. Belmont, who was greatly interested in breeding sometime ago, allowed his interested fag until quite recently, when it was revived, and he is as enthusiastic as ever over the matter, as the importation of this stock pedigree.

Both animals arrived in the pink of condition. They were cared for on the voyage by Mr. W. H. Bishop.

The Dicheartening Circumstances That

When John Mahedy returned from his work last night to his home at 344 East Forty. fourth street he met a discouraging set of circumstances. His wife, Rose, was gone. His sick baby, mother, had been sent to Believue by the mother, had been sent to Bellevne by the police, and his two other children were hungry and crying for something to est.

The police of the East Thirty-fifth street station, who acted in the matter, were informed that Mrs. Mahedy had gone on a spree early in the day, and they instituted prompt measures to find her.

The Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Children has been notified of the case.

ecade of yours been known a better yield of grain and hay than has been gathered by the farmers of Warren and hussex counties. The barns are ever-flowing and immense stacks have been erected to contain the unusual crop.

Weather indications:

oriable winds. The Weather To-Day. Indicated by Blakely's tele-therm

O'KELLY ARRESTED.

Parliament.

Followers in London.

LONDON, July 25 .- James J. O'Kelly, memper of Parliament for Roscommon, Ireland, was arrested this morning at Mark Lane Station, London, on the charge of making a seditions speech at Boyle.

nellite members.

CONSPIRED TO KILL PERDINAND.

red, the object of which was to take the life of Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria.

locuments were found revealing a conmiracy to assassinate Prince Ferdinand overturn the Bulgarian Government and place Bulgaria under Russian control.

mouth.

1987 CABLE TO THE PRODUCTION.;

LONDON, July 25.—The Lecester Handicap

There were nine starters. The betting at the start was 5 to 2 against King Monmouth, 8 to 1 against Woodland, 7

TWO PINE BROOD MARES IN PORT.

They are Bella Donna and Viola, splendid racing stock, and will doubtless be sent to the matter, as the important of this stock indicates.

Bella Donna is a three-year-old filly, by Hermit, dam Bonnie Doon, by Rapid Rhope. She ran twice in 1887 without winning. Viola is an older mare, but of equally blue-blooded WIFE AND BABY GONE. Faced John Mahedy.

Mary, only two years old, abandoned by its Great Crops of Grain and Hay. BELVIDERS, N. J., Jaly 25. — Tagre has not for a

> WASHINGTON, July 25. For Connecticut and Eastern Sew York-Ruir, slightly warmer, rollowed Thirrday by